Response	Response
87484285	It was a brief introduction although the speaker was very knowledgeable. I would like to attend an all day training on this subject as it is a big issue that couples endure.
87485249	I appreciated all the resources offered and the reference page. Can apply this right away
87489686	Really enjoyed this speaker
87495386	Presentation felt a bit disorganized
87500291	I thought this presentation was informative but not presented as well as it probably could be.
87500535	Excellent presentation. Aline was articulate, provocative, and the topic was relevant for me in my current practice. The 4 Ts, Touch, Talk, Time and Trust. The importance of helping couples to understand the biological aspects of sex.
87504272	Great presentation and references.
87504606	Dr. Zoldbrod was great!
87504966	Provided an outstanding resource list and was comfortable using relevant and explicit language to illustrate many useful points about helping couples become more comfortable working with each other toward ongoing sexual
87505682	Good topic to add to Couples conf.
87509517	So usefr!
87509526	Up to date and quality information but a little too broad in resources.
87509854	She was excellent.
87518292	She is a very engaging, informative speaker with a great sense of humor. Had some new info to share.
87518390	I thought the topic of the importance of touch was really interesting and I could see how talking about it in individual and couples sessions when patients share that they are feeling less connected in their relationships could be very beneficial. I really appreciated Aline's approach and humor. She seems fun!
87518889	Very informative and engaging. Great speaker
87522258	I would love to hear more on this topic
87523025	Organized and clear
87523087	Fantastic speaker! I would happily see her myself if I were in the market for sex therapy, and I will certainly refer to her.
87523753	Expert and engaging presenter, but her presentation was a bit rushed and unorganized. Her "body map" technique will be very useful to my clients.
87523786	I thoroughly enjoyed your sense of humor, wealth of information, and engaging lecture style.
87524116	She's funny, warm, human and provided lots of great practical information. I'm a sex therapist, so I knew most of the content, but that's not her fault. I'm planning to look at the references she gave, and I expect that to lead me to new, useful content.
87524360	More complicated details for relationships
87524867	liked the connection to the ideas of Helen Fisher
87525317	Very engaging presentation
87526275	Very funny and easygoing--again I could have used some more suggestions for using these ideas in therapy
87526601	Good presentation.
87530390	Fabulous, engaging and I learned so much. The resources were great and I will definitely be sharing them with clients.
87530797	Through presentation
87531323	Charming presenter. I enjoyed the focus on the female perspective. I would like more discussion on other sexual issues for couples.
87538251	Speaker seems to be mindful of individuals with visual impairment and provided description of visual images / elements of the presentation. Overall presentation and content were very good. Speaker applied appropriate good sense of humor.
87540041	Like the color coding and wished more specific activities (a like this one) was offered
87540057	She was a great presenter and put the audience at ease with what can be a hard subject to discuss. Very interested in the Body Map exercise she discussed and think I can use this in my practice.
87540294	Engaging and dynamic presenter.
87541363	helpful. got conciousness raised and gained insight but not too relevant to my clinical work on a practical level
87541801	Wonderful delivery of very important information and data.
87543204	Excellent- very engaging and new ideas!

87544146	Speaker clearly comfortable with this topic. She presented material that was realistic and not necessarily well understood by the public (ourselves)
87545839	this was the most horrible speaker I have ever heard. she basically said the only women who enjoy sex are lesbians, and over-generalized that is the women in the relation who never want as much sex as the men. while this is true sometimes, there are plenty of women who want sex as much if not more than there male partner. she was belittling and demeaning to women and very, very, offensive. NEVER have this speaker again, PLEASE!
87546446	Presenter was very engaging and presentation was well organized and easy to follow.
87547322	Liked your draw a gingerman and use green/yellow/red colors Appreciated your summary of Helen Fishers work of stages in relationship lust/romance/bonding Liked the Touch Time Talk Trust information you gave us
87548247	I appreciated the direct language modeled to clients and examples along with the content.
87548352	Her creative sense of humor added a lot to the presentation.
87548370	Concrete information to inform practice; excellent.
87550028	Excellent- this was so helpful! I appreciate the many resources she recommended. The bodymap exercise was also helpful- I had not previously heard of that, and will definitely be using it with my clients in the future. The topic of helping couples with sexual issues is always helpful to my practice, so I appreciate this being presented.
87553666	This presentation was a clinical window as well as a conscious raising experience. This was the most useful presentation and approach to Sexual Intimacy I have ever encounter. Dr. Zoldbrod, thank you. Masterful.
87555912	She was direct, interesting and a good way to end the day. I would have loved more time with her to learn more.
87556671	Wished there had been more time as very engaging and useful presentation and information
87561338	She appeared well-equipped and comfortable in assessing and conceptualizing difficulties with sex as both acute problems and as caused by relational dynamics. Her talk was very biology driven and seemed a bit essentialist (e.g., men are..., vs. women are...). I wish there were a bit more social learning in such a talk, but I understand her love for Helen Fisher drives the way she makes sense of difficulties with sex.
87565222	I liked it when she showed the drawing of body parts of people areas they did not want to be touched etc.
87566218	There are many couples who do not want to go to a sex therapist and this provided helpful tips for helping the client develop insight.
87568735	humorous - good information to know & think about
87573697	This presentation was very down to earth and accessible. She was the last person on Friday but totally kept my attention---something not always easy to do on a Friday afternoon after lunch,.
87580155	Very well done. Aline was very open and direct with her topic, which is difficult for some professionals. Also, her way of presenting the subject, with a sense of humor, helped to keep the audiences attention.
87584793	I thought Aline was the highlight of the afternoon, maybe of the whole day!! Her passion and enthusiasm for the topic was equalled by the relevance of the subject matter to Couples Therapy. I learned a lot and it was very pleasant to do so.
87587435	Excellent presentation; extremely engaging presenter who provided helpful, relevant, practical info and techniques
87594319	Amusingly delivered--and suggests that the topic of sex should be brought up-gently-when the clients don't do that themselves.
87595181	She was amazing, she did a fantastic job engaging the audience, asking questions and exploring ways to engage with clients around sex and sexuality
87601195	Liked that she identified the presentation was about monogamous couples. Felt less heteronormative
87601716	Very interesting material and the presenter was very interesting
87605200	Informative, practical, lively, humorous, and thought-provoking. One of the presentations that I feel I could most practically apply to my practice.
87612582	her confidence in speaking of matters sexual impresses how important therapist awareness of one's own comfort level contributes to the therapeutic relationship
87615645	Excellent !
87622757	Presentation should have been of a longer duration this is my belief for the majority of the workshops.
87633921	She is a very enthusiastic and charismatic speaker, though the content could have been presented in a more organized or useful manner.
87664512	More fun than Dr. Ruth. This was one of my favorite presentations (and not just because of the content, but definitely partially because of the content.)
87690211	Very useful information, presented in a very engaging way (especially notable, since it was the last for the day!) I will definitely be using information from the presentation and questions in my practice.
87692586	Excellent!
87694449	I wish she would have had more time.

87704432	Important topic to discuss and get comfortable bringing up in our sessions. I would like to learn more about sex in marriage in high conflict marriages.
87713349	Lively, informative, entertaining in sense shows how humor can facilitate work
87713849	great presentation of literature, concepts, and applied to practice
87713951	She was fabulous!! Very approachable lecture on how couples can communicate through sex if sex is understood through the 4 tenants of physical communication
87722246	Funny and irreverent. Much new information, many useful tools.
87753504	Excellent and applicable to all.
87763323	Good use of body mapping drawings
87768520	Will be using body maps and ask more questions at intake about how problems impact intimacy
87826460	Very useful and relevant in couple therapy. Learned new approach to work with couples in sexual intimacy.
87843479	information presented in a fun way
87880950	presented relevant information with humor
87914577	great personal style. wish she had more time. lots new for me here
87924569	Zoldbrod was more entertaining and informative than previous "sex therapists" I've seen at this conference.
87939816	Interesting topics- liked the body coloring activity
88018404	For me this was the best presentation of the conference! Amazing presentation filled with helpful, practical examples and ways to use the concept clinically. I could have listened to her present all day!
88046997	Very engaging, informative, not terribly well organized.
88131134	Enjoyed the concept of Mercy Sex
88156462	Loved the analogy of the dishwasher ie love-making is not a model of perfectionism! Good end to the long day.
88158125	Liked her presentation but became redundant. Too long -- seemed she ran out of steam after about 45 minutes.
88174618	This was a wonderfully engaging presentation. I appreciate the extensive list of resources Aline Zoldbrod provided, too.
88208019	Wonderful presentation.
88234141	Wow, this presentation was amazing, and Aline is incredible. I am already very comfortable working with people who have different/alternative lifestyles and am in my comfort zone with most subjects, but Aline's humor was a breath of fresh air as well as being very energizing. She's helped me lighten up while remaining professional.
88383586	I would have loved to have a whole day's conference on this subject to better address intimacy issues with couples.
88388564	This presenter was really fun and very suited to the subject and content. I really liked her comments on touch and how integral it is to a relationship. I feel more empowered to broach this subject with my clients.
88662821	Aline was a modern-day Dr. Ruth. She was fun, funny, topic was interesting and body maps were compelling. Def something I would use in my practice. This could be a whole-day topic.
88953852	The presentation made me think more about how to incorporate encouraging sexual connection in my current work with couples.
